

Q: If I sell my business will my license transfer to the new owner?

A: No. You must file a final business license report within 15 days of selling your business. The new owner must then apply for a business license in their name.